From the Commander

Greetings,

March is going to be filled with lots going-on at the post. Please check out the calendar to ensure you are up to date and don't miss out on anything.

Sunday, March 10th we will have our Bingo for Easter Hams. We are starting at 11:00 am and going for 17 rounds. The bingo cards will be $1.00 each. This event is open to the public so be sure to spread the word. The bar will be putting on a ham lunch as a fundraiser with eat-in or take-out options.

As spring creeps in we are going to need some help with the upkeep of our facility. Please think about how you can help contribute if you are unable to volunteer for our fundraisers.;

I will close with a reminder that March 15th is the American Legion's birthday and the National Vietnam War Veterans Day is Sunday, March 29th. Please flood our Facebook page with pictures of our Vietnam veterans.

Your Commander,
Angie Arreguin

Birthday night this month is the 22nd. We will be providing corned beef and cabbage. Bring your favorite dessert or side dish.

Tuesdays dice games in the lounge are slowly catching on. Roll the dice and win prizes. You don't need to be present to win.

Auxiliary News

Thank you Sue, Shelley and Jan for taking care of the February Veterans to go meal. We are passing out 28 meals each month.

It has been many years since we have been able to send a girl to Girls State. They have changed the date it is to be held, so we have high hopes that this year we can sponsor a girl or two to go. The program is a wonderful experience for those who attend.

Congratulations to the winner of the cribbage tournament.

Check the calendar, looks like lots of fun things to take place at the legion in March. Spring is just around the corner, Happy St. Patrick's & Happy Easter
